Approved, SCAO OSM CODE: NOH

STATE OF MICHIGAN PROBATE COURT COUNTY

NOTICE OF HEARING AND APPOINTMENT OF ATTORNEY ON OBJECTION TO HOSPITALIZATION OR ADMISSION

FILE NO.

In the matter of	CIRCUIT COURT - FAMILY DIVISION	TIOUT TIALIZATION ON ADMINOSION
to leave. 2. A hearing on your objection will be held at: Location Date Time before Judge Bar no. 3. You are entitled to be represented by an attorney. The court has appointed: Attorney name Bar no. Address City, state, zip Telephone no. If you desire to employ an attorney of your own choice, you may do so. If you prefer an attorney other than the one appoint for you, and the preferred attorney agrees to accept the employment and notifies the court of his/her appearance on you behalf, the court will replace the attorney now appointed for you. If you feel you are unable to pay for an attorney, and the court agrees, the court will see that your attorney is paid from public funds at the court approved rate. 4. You have the right to be present at the hearing. If you fail to attend the hearing after having an opportunity to meet with attorney, you will be considered to have waived your right to attend and the hearing may be held without you (except for a judical mable to pay for this, and the court agrees, the court will see that the evaluation is paid for from public funds. You she discuss the need for an independent medical or psychological evaluation. If you feel are unable to pay for this, and the court agrees, the court will see that the evaluation is paid for from public funds. You she discuss the need for an independent medical or psychological evaluation with your attorney.	In the matter of
Location Date Time before Judge Bar no. 3. You are entitled to be represented by an attorney. The court has appointed: Attomey name Bar no. Address City, state, zip Telephone no. If you desire to employ an attorney of your own choice, you may do so. If you prefer an attorney other than the one appoint for you, and the preferred attorney agrees to accept the employment and notifies the court of his/her appearance on you behalf, the court will replace the attorney now appointed for you. If you feel you are unable to pay for an attorney, and the court agrees, the court will see that your attorney is paid from public funds at the court approved rate. 4. You have the right to be present at the hearing. If you fail to attend the hearing after having an opportunity to meet with attorney, you will be considered to have waived your right to attend the hearing may be held without you (except for a judid admission under MCL 330.1517(3)). 5. For administrative admission only: You may also ask for an independent medical or psychological evaluation. If you feel are unable to pay for this, and the court agrees, the court will see that the evaluation is paid for from public funds. You she discuss the need for an independent medical or psychological evaluation with your attorney. 6. For administrative admission only: You have the right to a jury trial.		whether you need to be in a hospital or center.	If this court agrees, you will be allowed
Date Bar no. 3. You are entitled to be represented by an attorney. The court has appointed: Attorney name Bar no. Address City, state, zip Telephone no. If you desire to employ an attorney of your own choice, you may do so. If you prefer an attorney other than the one appoint for you, and the preferred attorney agrees to accept the employment and notifies the court of his/her appearance on you behalf, the court will replace the attorney now appointed for you. If you feel you are unable to pay for an attorney, and the court agrees, the court will see that your attorney is paid from public funds at the court approved rate. 4. You have the right to be present at the hearing. If you fail to attend the hearing after having an opportunity to meet with attorney, you will be considered to have waived your right to attend and the hearing may be held without you (except for a judiadmission under MCL 330.1517(3)). 5. For administrative admission only: You may also ask for an independent medical or psychological evaluation. If you feel are unable to pay for this, and the court agrees, the court will see that the evaluation is paid for from public funds. You she discuss the need for an independent medical or psychological evaluation with your attorney. 6. For administrative admission only: You have the right to a jury trial.	2. A hearing on your objection will be h	ield at:
Bar no. 3. You are entitled to be represented by an attorney. The court has appointed: Attorney name Bar no. Address City, state, zip Telephone no. If you desire to employ an attorney of your own choice, you may do so. If you prefer an attorney other than the one appoint for you, and the preferred attorney agrees to accept the employment and notifies the court of his/her appearance on you behalf, the court will replace the attorney now appointed for you. If you feel you are unable to pay for an attorney, and the court agrees, the court will see that your attorney is paid from public funds at the court approved rate. 4. You have the right to be present at the hearing. If you fail to attend the hearing after having an opportunity to meet with attorney, you will be considered to have waived your right to attend and the hearing may be held without you (except for a judiadmission under MCL 330.1517(3)). 5. For administrative admission only: You may also ask for an independent medical or psychological evaluation. If you feel are unable to pay for this, and the court agrees, the court will see that the evaluation is paid for from public funds. You she discuss the need for an independent medical or psychological evaluation with your attorney. 6. For administrative admission only: You have the right to a jury trial.	Location
Bar no. 3. You are entitled to be represented by an attorney. The court has appointed: Attorney name Bar no. Address City, state, zip Telephone no. If you desire to employ an attorney of your own choice, you may do so. If you prefer an attorney other than the one appoint for you, and the preferred attorney agrees to accept the employment and notifies the court of his/her appearance on you behalf, the court will replace the attorney now appointed for you. If you feel you are unable to pay for an attorney, and the court agrees, the court will see that your attorney is paid from public funds at the court approved rate. 4. You have the right to be present at the hearing. If you fail to attend the hearing after having an opportunity to meet with attorney, you will be considered to have waived your right to attend and the hearing may be held without you (except for a judiadmission under MCL 330.1517(3)). 5. For administrative admission only: You may also ask for an independent medical or psychological evaluation. If you feel are unable to pay for this, and the court agrees, the court will see that the evaluation is paid for from public funds. You she discuss the need for an independent medical or psychological evaluation with your attorney. 6. For administrative admission only: You have the right to a jury trial.	Date	Time
Bar no. 3. You are entitled to be represented by an attorney. The court has appointed: Attorney name Bar no. Address City, state, zip Telephone no. If you desire to employ an attorney of your own choice, you may do so. If you prefer an attorney other than the one appoint for you, and the preferred attorney agrees to accept the employment and notifies the court of his/her appearance on you behalf, the court will replace the attorney now appointed for you. If you feel you are unable to pay for an attorney, and the court agrees, the court will see that your attorney is paid from public funds at the court approved rate. 4. You have the right to be present at the hearing. If you fail to attend the hearing after having an opportunity to meet with attorney, you will be considered to have waived your right to attend and the hearing may be held without you (except for a judiadmission under MCL 330.1517(3)). 5. For administrative admission only: You may also ask for an independent medical or psychological evaluation. If you feel are unable to pay for this, and the court agrees, the court will see that the evaluation is paid for from public funds. You she discuss the need for an independent medical or psychological evaluation with your attorney. 6. For administrative admission only: You have the right to a jury trial.	hefore Judge
Attorney name Bar no. Address City, state, zip Telephone no. If you desire to employ an attorney of your own choice, you may do so. If you prefer an attorney other than the one appoint for you, and the preferred attorney agrees to accept the employment and notifies the court of his/her appearance on you behalf, the court will replace the attorney now appointed for you. If you feel you are unable to pay for an attorney, and the court agrees, the court will see that your attorney is paid from public funds at the court approved rate. 4. You have the right to be present at the hearing. If you fail to attend the hearing after having an opportunity to meet with attorney, you will be considered to have waived your right to attend and the hearing may be held without you (except for a judial admission under MCL 330.1517(3)). 5. For administrative admission only: You may also ask for an independent medical or psychological evaluation. If you feel are unable to pay for this, and the court agrees, the court will see that the evaluation is paid for from public funds. You she discuss the need for an independent medical or psychological evaluation with your attorney. 6. For administrative admission only: You have the right to a jury trial.
City, state, zip Telephone no. If you desire to employ an attorney of your own choice, you may do so. If you prefer an attorney other than the one appoint for you, and the preferred attorney agrees to accept the employment and notifies the court of his/her appearance on you behalf, the court will replace the attorney now appointed for you. If you feel you are unable to pay for an attorney, and the court agrees, the court will see that your attorney is paid from public funds at the court approved rate. 4. You have the right to be present at the hearing. If you fail to attend the hearing after having an opportunity to meet with attorney, you will be considered to have waived your right to attend and the hearing may be held without you (except for a judic admission under MCL 330.1517(3)). 5. For administrative admission only: You may also ask for an independent medical or psychological evaluation. If you feel are unable to pay for this, and the court agrees, the court will see that the evaluation is paid for from public funds. You she discuss the need for an independent medical or psychological evaluation with your attorney. 6. For administrative admission only: You have the right to a jury trial.	3. You are entitled to be represented b	y an attorney. The court has appointed:
City, state, zip Telephone no. If you desire to employ an attorney of your own choice, you may do so. If you prefer an attorney other than the one appoint for you, and the preferred attorney agrees to accept the employment and notifies the court of his/her appearance on you behalf, the court will replace the attorney now appointed for you. If you feel you are unable to pay for an attorney, and the court agrees, the court will see that your attorney is paid from public funds at the court approved rate. 4. You have the right to be present at the hearing. If you fail to attend the hearing after having an opportunity to meet with attorney, you will be considered to have waived your right to attend and the hearing may be held without you (except for a judi admission under MCL 330.1517(3)). 5. For administrative admission only: You may also ask for an independent medical or psychological evaluation. If you feel are unable to pay for this, and the court agrees, the court will see that the evaluation is paid for from public funds. You she discuss the need for an independent medical or psychological evaluation with your attorney. 6. For administrative admission only: You have the right to a jury trial.	Attorney name	Bar no.
If you desire to employ an attorney of your own choice, you may do so. If you prefer an attorney other than the one appoint for you, and the preferred attorney agrees to accept the employment and notifies the court of his/her appearance on you behalf, the court will replace the attorney now appointed for you. If you feel you are unable to pay for an attorney, and the court agrees, the court will see that your attorney is paid from public funds at the court approved rate. 4. You have the right to be present at the hearing. If you fail to attend the hearing after having an opportunity to meet with attorney, you will be considered to have waived your right to attend and the hearing may be held without you (except for a judi admission under MCL 330.1517(3)). 5. For administrative admission only: You may also ask for an independent medical or psychological evaluation. If you feel are unable to pay for this, and the court agrees, the court will see that the evaluation is paid for from public funds. You she discuss the need for an independent medical or psychological evaluation with your attorney. 6. For administrative admission only: You have the right to a jury trial.	Address for you, and the preferred attorney agrees to accept the employment and notifies the court of his/her appearance on you behalf, the court will replace the attorney now appointed for you. If you feel you are unable to pay for an attorney, and the court agrees, the court will see that your attorney is paid from public funds at the court approved rate. 4. You have the right to be present at the hearing. If you fail to attend the hearing after having an opportunity to meet with attorney, you will be considered to have waived your right to attend and the hearing may be held without you (except for a judy admission under MCL 330.1517(3)). 5. For administrative admission only: You may also ask for an independent medical or psychological evaluation. If you feel are unable to pay for this, and the court agrees, the court will see that the evaluation is paid for from public funds. You she discuss the need for an independent medical or psychological evaluation with your attorney. 6. For administrative admission only: You have the right to a jury trial.	City, state, zip	Telephone no.
 attorney, you will be considered to have waived your right to attend and the hearing may be held without you (except for a jude admission under MCL 330.1517(3)). 5. For administrative admission only: You may also ask for an independent medical or psychological evaluation. If you feel are unable to pay for this, and the court agrees, the court will see that the evaluation is paid for from public funds. You she discuss the need for an independent medical or psychological evaluation with your attorney. 6. For administrative admission only: You have the right to a jury trial. 	for you, and the preferred attorney a behalf, the court will replace the attorney	agrees to accept the employment and notifies the orney now appointed for you. If you feel you are u	court of his/her appearance on your unable to pay for an attorney, and the
are unable to pay for this, and the court agrees, the court will see that the evaluation is paid for from public funds. You sh discuss the need for an independent medical or psychological evaluation with your attorney.6. For administrative admission only: You have the right to a jury trial.	attorney, you will be considered to ha	ve waived your right to attend and the hearing may are unable to pay for this, and the co	ourt agrees, the court will see that the evaluation is	s paid for from public funds. You should
7. You should discuss your rights with your attorney.	6. For administrative admission only: `	You have the right to a jury trial.
	7. You should discuss your rights with	your attorney.
Date Deputy probate register/clerk	Date	Deputy probate register/clerl

Do not write below this line - For court use only